

Weekly Newsletter

Lower Juniors

Dear Parents/carers,

Thank you to everyone for braving the snow and freezing cold temperatures to make it into school this week. We have greatly appreciated your flexibility in the wintry weather ! As you can see we did manage to have some fun in the snow!

Easter Production

Year 4 have begun practising for the Easter Production. Please continue to learn your lines off by heart! The songs are now available to listen to on the Year 4 school blog. Please can all children in Year 3 and 4 start to learn these songs—we will be practising in school next week!

Book Day

World Book Day will now be celebrated on Friday 9th March. We are looking forward to seeing all of your costumes so if you haven't yet decided on your character you have an extra week to prepare!
World Book Day vouchers have been given out and can be exchanged in the school Library until next Wednesday.

Maths Workshops

Thank you to everyone who attended the Maths workshop on Wednesday. It is great to see so many of you engaging in your children's learning—and maybe even learning a few new skills too! The next workshop will focus on multiplication skills and application.

Upcoming dates for your diary:

Wednesday 7th March	Year 3 & 4 Maths Workshop (multiplication focus) 9:15–10:15 The book fair is now extended until this date.
Friday 9th March	Year 4—'Make Your Money Grow' World Book Day—please come dressed as your book character Mother's Day Afternoon Tea—KS1 Hall, 2pm
Wednesday 14 March	Green Class Prayer Service 9:15

Have a lovely weekend,
Miss Elliott
& the Lower Juniors Team

Well done to our Stars of the Week!
