TOMMY FOGGO SUPERHERO

A magical multi-media tale of a life saved by music for children 7+ and their guardians, based on a true story.

Tommy's mum had told him to wait for her at the bus stop and never showed up again. It felt to Tommy like he'd been stuck there for a zillion years – even after he'd been taken to live in the children's home. And then, one day, he runs away – to the seaside, where he finds Destino, a talking cello with a mission.

Join superhero duo Tommy Foggo and Destino as they recruit a gang of young helpers to travel with them through time and space to find the Queen of Lost Atlantis.

Performed by acclaimed cellist, baritone & actor Matthew Sharp

Composed by Stephen Deazley

Written by Martin Riley

"As though Tom Waits and Stephen Sondheim had come together with Roald Dahl. Deazley is quite simply a visionary" – The Herald
